Insurance and Financial Services

Dramatic changes are radiating from Washington, D.C., and affecting every corner of the insurance and financial services industry. Baker & Daniels professionals deliver legal and business advice to keep clients in the know on important federal legislation and industry developments, and ensure compliance at state and federal levels.

Along with B&D Consulting, our federal advocacy and business strategy division, we have experienced professionals in Washington, D.C. — just blocks from regulatory agencies and Congress. With additional offices in Indiana, Chicago and Beijing, and our affiliation with international law firm networks and the Federation of Regulatory Counsel, we serve clients across the country and throughout the world.

Baker & Daniels has built its reputation through responsive and effective service. With expertise that includes corporate, regulatory, transactional, public policy, insolvency, and litigation services, we help you identify opportunities and work through challenges during these times of extraordinary change.
